

Here are some phrases for you to lipread. You might need to lipread these phrases when you are talking about the Seasons.

They may be familiar phrases that you often use or they may be similar to ones that you use.

You could try practising these phrases either in a mirror or in a discussion with a friend.

Which season do you prefer?

I like the summer/winter/spring/autumn(best) - because I like— to be warm/the flowers/sunshine /autumn colours/snow etc.

My sister/brother etc. prefers the winter.

S/he/they love(s) the snow.

Everything really looks pretty when it's covered in snow.

I don't like to be too cold do you?

Everything sparkles / glistens

I like it when spring comes.

I love the spring and summer salads for lunch/dinner.

All the spring flowers are so pretty.

When you get to March spring is just around the corner.

March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.

Sometimes it is so warm in spring.

Sometimes it is so cold in spring.

April showers bring the flowers.

I love the warm, light evenings in the summer.

Barbecues are fun when the weather is good.

How do you feel when the nights begin to draw in?

It looks like we are going to have an Indian summer.

The evenings get darker as we go into autumn and winter.

The autumn colours of the trees are very beautiful.

It's nice to sit around the fire on a winter's evening.

I don't like getting up in the dark.

It feels like the middle of the night, these dark mornings.

It's very warm/cold/mild for the time of year.

It's very wet/sunny/windy etc. for the time of year.

You could add some that you have found to be used often.