

We love to talk about the Weather don't we? So here are some phrases about the weather that you might need to lipread.

They may be familiar phrases that you often use or they may be similar to ones that you use.

You could try practising these phrases either in a mirror or in a discussion with a friend.

What's the weather like today?

It's a lovely day today.

It's a horrible day today.

The weather's not too bad.

The weather's not too good.

It's pouring with rain.

It's raining cats and dogs

The sun is shining today

The sun isn't shining today

It's very calm today.

It's very windy today.

It's not very windy today.

It's very cold for the time of year.

It's very warm for the time of year.

It looks like snow today.

It doesn't look like snow today.

I think it's going to rain today.

I don't think it's going to rain today.

It's not a nice day for a picnic.

It's a nice day for a picnic.

There's a storm coming.

I don't think there's going to be a storm.

It's going to rain tomorrow.

It's not going to rain tomorrow.

The sky is very dark.

The temperature is going up.

The temperature is going down.

It's turning cold now.

The nights are drawing in.

The lightning flashed and the thunder roared.

The hail storm was frightening.

It's very cloudy.

It's very misty.

It's quite foggy.

We're going to have an Indian summer.

It'll soon be winter.

Spring is in the air.

It feels like autumn.

Red sky at night shepherd's delight

Red sky in the morning shepherd's warning.

It's very damp today.

Do the clocks go back this weekend?

I love the colours of autumn.

There was enough snow to make a snowman.

There wasn't enough snow to make a snowman.

You could add some that you have found to be used very often.